

E-Tarot March

March has to be one of the most welcome months of the year to us northerners. Everyone I've spoken to over the past week has exclaimed, "Oh Spring is just around the corner!! I can hardly wait." The Spring Equinox on the 21st marks the erupting shift in energies to fertility, growth, and expansion. This marks the most auspicious time of year (it's not called Spring for nothing) to launch new projects, relationships, and dedications. Pay special attention to the week from the Full Moon (on the 14th) to the Equinox.

The card for March 21st is the Ace of Swords. Seize the Day is the mantra of this card. What will you begin this month? Start planning, because from the 14th to the 21st the planetary energies align to weight success heavily in your favour. What idea has been brewing in the back of your mind? Now is the time to put some serious energy behind it. Breathe deeply and get ready to go...

MY new Spring Project www.psychicanada.com

This is my new web site! You can probably tell that I couldn't be more Spring excited if I tried. I finally have my own online reading site where I can provide a sacred cyber-temple to house a bevy of wonderfully talented psychics, many of whom are world renowned.

Over the past year I've been getting increasingly busy with my online reading practice and have attracted a wide array of clients from all over the world – Hong Kong, South Africa, Britain, US and Afghanistan. Some of my clients have already met with me in person at the large women's and psychic shows, or the Royal York have found it helpful to do follow up readings with me online. When you sign up for a membership you receive $10 free to use for your first reading.

I welcome your feedback to this site too! There is nothing more helpful than clear honest feedback on newly created sites. One of the pages that is presently in formation is True Psychic Stories – anyone who has a great story is welcome to submit it to me and you'll see it published on the site with full acknowledgement of your work.

Total Woman Show – Hamilton

Saturday and Sunday March 11 & 12, I'll be reading at a booth at the Total Woman Show in Hamilton at the Convention Centre. At 1:30 PM on the Saturday I'll be giving a talk on the Exhibitor Showcase Stage on "Women and Divination" which is always fun. Join us! If you would like to come I can forward you a FREE entrance pass ($12 value).

Grad Profile Assunta Di Trani

Assunta is posing with me for this photo taken at the National Women's Show in Toronto in October. Assunta began her studies with me at the Learning Annex in Toronto in October 2003 and completed her Advanced to Professional Tarot Reader April 2004. She did all that while going through a personally exhaustive and rigorous healing process. I think all the Tarot Circle would agree with me that Assunta is one of warmest, most generous women you will ever meet. She has read coffee grounds for years, already attracting a huge following from her community before studying the Tarot. She can be reached for a reading in Toronto at 905-828-7271 or through email bdots@gmail.com.

Crystal's Tea Room

I took the above photo at a Tea Party I did in the Sun Room at Crystal's (some of you may recognize yourselves – thank you for making this such a lovely picture!). Sometimes I sit in this sunroom reading for a party for tea and wonder how my life ever got so good. I've done birthdays, showers, retirements, and just plain girl parties. Every one of them has been juicily memorable to me. If you'd like to book a Tea and Tarot at Crystal's, call her directly at 519.585.0458 to make a reservation.

Quote

“Divination and seership always begins with the self. Seers need to be able to shed or set aside the outer self and look closely behind their own masks or the masks of others for whom they are seeing. Through the development of divination and seership, we learn to see ourselves and the world differently. We learn to see connections and patterns where previously we had not seen them. Everything is connected to everything else. Nothing is insignificant or of no consequence. The lesser will reflect patterns of the greater. In many ways it is like standing between two mirrors. There are multiple reflections in both mirrors, but all are linked to the one primary image. With seership and divination, we learn to see all the threads and pieces, past and/or future, leading to or out from a specific point in time or place.”

Crystal Balls & Crystal Bowls
by Ted Andrews 2004

If you have enjoyed reading my E-Tarot, please feel welcome to pass it on. On the other hand, if you would prefer to be removed from my contact list, please let me know and I'll do it immediately.

Spring Blessings
Kathleen

Kathleen Meadows, M.A.,
Certified Psychic & Tarot Grandmaster
519.513.9457
www.tarotbykathleen.com

ONLINE Readings @ www.psychicanada.com